

Don't Blame Jesus
(Christy Sutherland, Pam Tillis)

Another man of God has gone down the road
No man of God should go
It's another secret life exposed
Right there on TV

And the sins he preached on with a righteous shout
Looks like he knew what he was talking about
All he's done is sow the seeds of doubt
And the world says, "Why should I believe?"

Chorus:

Don't blame Jesus, oh, don't blame Jesus
When His children fall so short of being like He was
Don't blame Jesus, oh, don't blame Jesus
Even in the hands of broken messengers
It's still a perfect love

Church basement meeting on a Wednesday night
Voices angry, tensions high
A house divided, taking sides
They just can't agree

And the church that once was built upon the Rock
Starts to looking more like a stumbling block
Grace is gone and mercy's mocked
And the world says, "Why should I believe?"
Chorus

Bridge:

Gossip and greed
Prejudice and hate
Jesus never taught anyone to act that way
He healed the blind and broken
And gave His life out of love
And the way we choose to show that to the world is up to us
But don't blame Jesus...

Chorus
