

You Call Me Yours

By Christy Sutherland and Regi Stone

I hear You calling out my name, as only You can do
Your voice it covers all my shame, the old You turn to new
And no matter how things look to me
You see a destiny, a perfect promise

Chorus

You call me beautiful, You call me righteous
You call me worthy of Your Son's own precious blood
You call me holy
You call me strong at my weakest
Forgiven and pure, You call me Yours

It's hard for me to understand exactly what You see
I slip and stumble everyday but still You say believe
You say You will finish what You start
You see me for my heart and not the bruises
